THE SOUTH AFRICAN
COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Founded 1910

CONCERTS 2019

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

The South African College of Music, founded 109 years ago, offers world-class performances of African and Western music, jazz, opera and technology-inspired compositions on a weekly basis throughout the academic year on Tuesday evenings, with occasional concerts on other nights of the week.

The South African College of Music reserves the right to alter programmes or replace soloists as may become necessary, but will endeavour to give notice of such changes via the mailing list, in the media and on various websites.

Visit the SACM website: www.sacm.uct.ac.za

BECOME A FRIEND OF THE COLLEGE

Whilst every effort is made to keep ticket prices as low as possible, it is a huge benefit to join the Friends of the College.

Friends of the College are offered 15 vouchers for R720.00. This works out to R48 per voucher, which will be issued to you at the beginning of the UCT concert year. These vouchers may be exchanged for tickets either at the door, or at Webtickets at the Baxter. Normal prices range from R75 to R300, and more for the opera collaborations. Members may then purchase more vouchers at the pro rata rate when they run out. Tickets are transferable, so your family and friends may attend concerts with you or even without you. This also makes them the perfect gift for someone who has everything!

For more information, contact the Concert Co-ordinator, Gillian Lindner, on 021 650 2640

Saturday 18 May at 18h00
Artscape Opera House

UCT Opera School, in collaboration with Cape Town Opera, presents

BELLINI
I CAPULETI E I MONTECCHI

UCT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The legend of the feuding Capulets and Montagues of Verona came home to Italy in spectacular fashion with the premiere of Bellini's I Capuleti e i Montecchi in Venice in 1830. Drawing on the earliest versions of the Romeo and Juliet story (the source material for Shakespeare's classic), Bellini chose to cast his star-crossed lovers as a soprano and mezzo-soprano; their sensuous duets, full of Bellini's trademark long-breathed melodies, are highlights of this belcanto gem.

Featuring a youthful cast drawn from the UCT Opera School and CTO's Young Artist Programme, this new production will be conducted by Jeremy Silver, the Director of the UCT Opera School. Steven Stead directs, with designs by Michael Mitchell and Kobus Rossouw.

PLEASE SUPPORT THE UCT SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

The orchestra is not only a popular and prestigious flagship of the University, but also fulfils a number of indispensable educational functions. It provides our instrumentalists with practical experience in orchestral and concerto playing, and our opera students with opportunities to sing in full-scale productions with orchestra. It allows conducting students to work with full orchestra, and now also gives the winners of our orchestral composition competition the chance to hear their work performed.

An orchestra is, however, very expensive to run, and it has become increasingly difficult to find money in the SACM concert budget to fund all the costs of the orchestra. Apart from being unable to meet its day-to-day expenses, the orchestra has also had to refuse several invitations to take part in national festivals and tours, due to lack of financial resources.

In view of the above, the Director and Concert Committee of the SACM have established a special fund for the orchestra. Any donation, however small (or large!) is welcome.

All donations are tax deductible.

Donations of R100 and over will be acknowledged in our orchestra programmes in the following categories (donors may remain anonymous if they so prefer):

Bronze (R100-R999)	Gold (R10 000-R99 999)
Silver (R1 000-R9 999)	Platinum (R100 000 and above)

For donations in cash or by cheque (made out to UCT):
Please contact Gillian Lindner (021 650 2640 or Gillian.Lindner@uct.ac.za).

Please e-mail proof of payment to Gillian Lindner. You will receive a letter of acknowledgement which can be used to obtain a tax rebate.

Many thanks for your support!

SACM CHAMBER MUSIC SERIES

Made possible by generous support from the Rupert Foundation

The SACM offers at least two chamber music concerts per term. From Dowland to Shostakovich, these concerts offer everything from Renaissance to contemporary music. The performers are all studying for Performance degrees, and these performances form part of their chamber music exams. Concerts in the first three terms are preliminaries for the Schock Foundation Prize for Chamber Music, which takes the form of a gala concert in the second semester.

Admission is by donation to the SACM Chamber Music Scholarship Fund at the door. You can decide how much you would like to donate, and all donations, large or small, will be gratefully accepted. (Registered UCT students' admission is free on presentation of their student card.)

Our chamber music ensembles are in great demand to perform at private functions and homes. If you are interested in hiring a group, please contact our Concert Co-ordinator, Gillian Lindner on (021) 650 2640, or e-mail Gillian.Lindner@uct.ac.za.

We have listed the dates allocated to the chamber music concerts in the brochure. However, as the programmes have not been finalised, please check the dates and venues closer to the time.

You can e-mail becky.steltzner@uct.ac.za and have your name put on an e-mail list for concert notifications.

The UCT Opera
Campaign

The UCT Opera School is raising funds to ensure that we can continue offering world-class training to students with the exceptional talent that you will witness this year. To make a tax-deductible gift to the UCT Opera Campaign, please contact Cindy De Oliveira, Individual Giving Co-ordinator at the UCT Development and Alumni Department.

E-mail: Cindy.DeOliveira@uct.ac.za or
